

Philadelphia 6th Annual Interfaith Walk for Peace and Reconciliation

A "Walking Dialog" among Jews, Muslims, Christians, Sikh, Buddhists, Baha'i, Hindus and Others

Sunday Afternoon, May 3, 2009, 2:00 to 5:30 PM

2009 Theme: "People of Light, People of Hope, People of Courage"

Scheduled Stops where we celebrate with Prayer, Music and Sharing

Philadelphia Cathedral with Jewish Prayer and Music

3723 Chestnut Street. Entrance: 38th Street between Market and Chestnut Streets.

Philadelphia Masjid, 4700 Wyalusing Ave. (near Lancaster Ave.)

Millcreek Baptist Church, 641 N. Preston St. (Lancaster Ave. & 41st St.)

Philadelphia Cathedral - (See address above)

Refreshments and Fellowship at the final stop!

12:30 pm: Pre-Walk Gathering at Al Aqsa Islamic Society, 1501 Germantown Ave. (3rd & Jefferson Streets) Bus available to Cathedral, returning at end to Al Aqsa.

- A Bus will follow walkers for those who need to ride part or all of the way.
- Emergency medical assistance will be available.
- Parking lot available: Market St. between 38th and 39th (access from 39th St.) $3 contribution requested. Non-meter street parking west of 40th St.
- Please wear white as an expression of unity.
- No political banners, please!

Further details on parking, transportation, inclement weather changes, etc:

www.interfaithpeacewalk.org

