INTERFAITH CENTER
OF GREATER PHILADELPHIA

The Interfaith Center of Greater Philadelphia is proud to partner with and welcome to Philadelphia acclaimed violinist Gil Morgenstern, who will offer a specially created Reflections Series concert for the Interfaith Center. Gil Morgenstern's Reflections Series concerts feature solo and chamber music along with spoken word, and this performance will be designed to highlight the universal themes promoted by the Interfaith Center. He will be accompanied by Jonathan Feldman, pianist in residence for the New York Philharmonic, and Obie-winning actors Elizabeth Marvel and Bill Camp. This extraordinary and unique event is not to be missed!
