

Zones of Peace

ZONES OF PEACE
Religious Leaders Council of Greater Philadelphia

The Religious Leaders Council of Greater Philadelphia has committed the resources of its congregations, members, and rich religious traditions to imagining our region as a zone of peace, free of fear, filled with respect, and marked by deeds of kindness. Join us!

Organization Name: _____

Address: _____

Website: _____

Affiliations (denominations, ministeriums, etc.): _____

Key Contact Person (name & role): _____

Preferred Phone: _____

Preferred E-mail: _____

Cost (check all that fit within your financial abilities):

- $300 standard donation (payable to 'Interfaith Center')
- Offering an additional donation that would help establish 'Zones of Peace' in other communities
- Request scholarship assistance
- Sponsor a fundraising event to raise resources to expand 'Zones of Peace'

How did you hear about the 'Zones of Peace' initiative?

What you get when you become a 'Zone of Peace':

- ◇ 3' x 6' banner with the 'Zones of Peace' symbol.
- ◇ 50 copies of 'A Call from People of Faith to Stop Violence'.
- ◇ A trained mentor for your 'Zone of Peace' Area Task Force.
- ◇ Invitations to three specialized events throughout the year .
- ◇ Relationships with other congregations and community partners.

By becoming a 'Zone of Peace' your congregation / organization commits to:

- ◇ Engaging in a project that addresses a root cause of violence.
- ◇ Creatively utilizing 'A Call from People of Faith to Stop Violence'.
- ◇ Publicly displaying the 'Zones of Peace' symbol.
- ◇ Sending a representative from your community to an interfaith task force to work with other 'Zones of Peace' communities in your area.

Please send all completed forms to:
Reverend Nicole Diroff
Director of Outreach and Innovations
Interfaith Center of Greater Philadelphia
3723 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104
ndd@interfaithcenterpa.org, 215-222-1012
www.interfaithcenterpa.org

